

H.G. Hill Realty Company taps Kaalberg as General Counsel

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – April 11, 2011 – H. G. Hill Realty has appointed Aaron Kaalberg for the newly created position of general counsel. Kaalberg was previously a commercial associate with Bass, Berry & Sims PLC where his practice was focused in the areas of commercial real estate, commercial lending, secured transactions and general commercial law.

Kaalberg received his J.D. from Cornell Law School, with a concentration in business law and regulation. He was a John M. Olin Foundation Student Scholar in Law and Economics and was an Honors Fellow in the Legal Writing program. Aaron graduated from the Honors Program of the University of Iowa's Tippie School of Business with a B.B.A in Economics and Finance.

About H.G. Hill Realty Company, LLC

Since 1895, H.G. Hill Realty has built a legacy of service and stewardship in Middle Tennessee. Following the success of H.G. Hill Food Stores, Mr. H.G. Hill, Sr. incorporated the H.G. Hill Realty Company in 1926. After the Realty Company's organization, Mr. Hill placed most of the property he had acquired over the years into the Realty Company. When Mr. H.G. Hill, Jr. took the helm of the Hill Companies in 1942, he continued the tradition of acquiring and developing property during his 51 years as President. It was during Mr. Hill, Jr.'s tenure that the idea of neighborhood shopping centers became popular, and the H.G. Hill Realty Company began to develop a number of strip centers in the Nashville suburbs, each of which is anchored by an H.G. Hill Food Store. Since 1993 the H.G. Hill Realty Company has seen many changes take place, such as the development of unutilized or under-utilized properties, and a dramatic increase in its asset performance.
