

Demolition begins October 1 for Hill Center Brentwood expansion

BRENTWOOD, Tenn. – Sept. 24, 2014 – H.G. Hill Realty Company will begin the demolition of the Tennessee Baptist Convention building on October 1 as part of the company's expansion of Hill Center Brentwood, which will include a mix of restaurant and retail in addition to Class A office space.

The demolition is expected to take nine weeks and should be completed by the first week of December. During this phase, there will be no blasting. Throughout the demolition process, the concrete will be crushed for alternative uses.

Following the demolition, a construction timeline will be determined that includes a blasting schedule based on building locations and rock depths. The schedule will be shared with neighboring residents and businesses.

Turner Construction Company is the contractor overseeing the development's construction and D.H. Griffin will handle the demolition.

About H.G. Hill Realty Company, LLC

Since 1895, H.G. Hill Realty has built a legacy of service and stewardship in Middle Tennessee. Following the success of H.G. Hill Food Stores, H.G. Hill, Sr. incorporated the H.G. Hill Realty Company in 1926 and placed most of the property he had acquired over the years into the Realty Company. When H.G. Hill, Jr. took the helm in 1942, he continued the tradition of acquiring and developing property during his 51 years as president. It was during Hill, Jr.'s tenure that the idea of neighborhood shopping centers became popular, and the company began to develop a number of centers in the Nashville suburbs, each of which was anchored by an H.G. Hill Food Store. For more information, visit <http://www.hghill.com>.
